Social Onomastics

Parvaneh Khosravizadeh

Abstract:

The present paper reviews the role of different factors in selecting people names of a community. The main motivation of writing such a paper on the part of the writer is the presence of different criteria which independent of psychological investigations do have great values in the social and particularly linguistic researches and investigations.

Key Words: Social Onomastics, Psychological factors, Social factors, Euphony factors, Syllable study, Phonetic study